

Let Us All Meet Then

composed by Minwoo Kim

Song written by Jihye Kim

Full of joy, ever-lasting and forever is my home

Where the Lord sits on His majestic throne

When the race before us is over

Our beloved Lord we shall meet, putting on a shining crown

As the Lord rose from the dead again

Suffering and trials we shall overcome putting on a holy body

Let us all meet then and singing aloud

Let us praise the Lord together by His side
